OUR LITTLE NELL

By Hal E. Roach.

Our Little Nell cleverly impersonated by monkey actors is laid along the lines of the country girl wooed by the city chap, and despite parental objections causing the fair one to elope with him. Then follows the pursuit by the irate father, humorous incidents during the chase, but eventually love wins out and the eloping pair are married by the Justice of the Peace just before the arrival of the irate father who, as the story goes, kisses and forgives them both.
